Article by: Jamison Brown

Maryland car auctions allow us common folk who are not rich to acquire the car of our dreams for up to 90% less than the market price. Maryland has several car auctions, like the Belair auto auction, where you can get a BMW, Mercedes, Volvo, Audi and other exotic cars for an unbelievable price.

Where do you think the used car dealers go to get the cars for there car lots. While they are charging you $12,500 for a Honda civic that they got for less than $ 3,000; can you see what I am saying here. Don't be boo-boo the fool and get mislead and have your hard earn money taken from you by the slippery cars sales man just because u didn't want to spend the few dollars for gas to go to an auction. Here are a few tips and tricks to fully take advantage of your time at a car auction.

» Have a checklist of the important things that you need to see at the car auction. This will allow to quickly determine if the car you are looking at is a god car or a lemon

»Have a clear idea of what type of car you are looking for at the car auction and how much you are willing to spend for that car.

» Know when your car is coming up onto the auction block. To often people may see there dream car but they miss the chance to bid on the car because they left the building or were in the bathroom and did not know that there has already came up.

»Don't buy based on what you've been told because it may not always be the truth. Check out the car yourself very carefully. Ask a knowledgeable person who knows about cars to help you.

» Do your research. If you are looking to acquire a 2004 Nissan maxima then you should do research on the 2004 maxima so that you don't over pay,

»If you have a bad feeling about a car don't bid on it. Follow your instincts

» Make a low offer. Don't think that you can start off with a high bid and scare off all other buyers. Bid wisely.
