

Cheap Custom Wheels

Article by: Steven Farber

Looking for cheap custom wheels? Cheap custom wheels don't have to be of poor quality. Cheap wheels can mean great looking custom wheels at a low price. Here's how to find them!

Many of the custom wheel manufacturers change their line of custom wheels frequently. When they do they are often left with old stock. Many of these custom wheels are then sold to "discount wheel warehouses". On line discount wheel warehouses are the place to buy cheap custom wheels. Visit discount wheel warehouses on line and shop around. You don't have to settle for scratch and dent sales. You can find last years great looking custom wheels at a price you can afford.

It's not that unusual to find custom wheels selling from about $100.00 to $150.00 each especially if you own a small import tuner car. Here are a few examples of wheels pricing by manufacturer for custom rims that will fit a 2001 Honda Accord .

The manufacturer ASA (Artisan Spirited Alloy) makes a model JS1 custom wheel that sells on one web site for $99.00. This wheel is silver with a machined lip and the size we priced was 17X7. TRMotorsport's model RB5 is bright silver painted wheel that sells for $124.00 in size 17X7. Also don't forget eBay for cheap custom wheels.

You can save hundreds of dollars just by taking some time to compare the discount car rim deals you can find online. Many online automotive merchants offer your wheels balanced and shipping all for free. Something to consider if you want the cool custom look without the expensive payments.
